Biography

MATT REESER joined YOUNG & Associates in 2017 as a Consultant working his way to Senior Consultant. Matt has a broad range of experience over a 20-year span, including an outstanding technical engineering background, extensive project management background, demonstrated expertise in technical communications with vendors and suppliers as well as interpersonal skills to deliver a full scope of projects on time and within budget. Utilizing methodologies developed in prior professional fields, he excels in areas of building damage assessment, loss causation identification, and project estimation, all while relying on extensive research and loss documentation to provide an accurate appraisal of building damages. Most importantly, Matt enjoys his career and takes a lot of pride in the results he produces.
