Biography

ANDREW MCDONALD started working in the Insurance Restoration industry in 2007 after graduating with a Construction Management degree from Bowling Green State University. He has had long-tenured stays with multiple fast-growing restoration companies throughout the Carolinas. He has held many positions in these companies and is highly regarded as a knowledgeable professional who excels in leadership. Most recently, he was the Commercial Account Manager for RestorePro Reconstruction. Andrew brings 16 years of restoration knowledge, which includes a strong large loss estimating background, great customer service, and communication skills to the Raleigh-Durham area.
