

Jama Huskey

Associate II

Department

Accident Reconstruction & Forensic Animation

Tel: (865) 804-3509

Email: jama.huskey@yaeservices.com

Locations

Knoxville, TN

Biography

Mrs. Huskey is a Forensic Technician and a Bosch Certified Technician. She has years of experience in the field conducting scene studies and collecting documentation, of passenger vehicles and commercial vehicles studies as well as case research and review. She also has experience in management, inventory control, vendor, and client relations.

Representative Consulting Assignments

- Vehicle Electronic Data Download | Multiple Locations | Download vehicle input and response data.
- Collision Investigation and Documentation: | Multiple Locations | Investigation and documentation of single and multiple vehicle collisions.
- Trucking Investigation and Documentation | Multiple Locations | Investigation and investigation and documentation of single and multiple heavy vehicle collisions.
- Construction Zone Signing and Marking Scene Documentation | Multiple Locations | Investigation and documentation of single and multiple collisions in construction zones.

Professional Experience

- 2023 - Current | Associate II | YA Engineering Services
- 2023 - 2023 | Forensic Technician | Bloomberg Consulting
- 2018 - 2023 | Forensic Technician | EFI Global
- 2007 - 2013 | Substitute Teacher | Special Education Paraprofessional, KCS
- 2003 - 2004 | Office Manager | Ryabik, Moore and Associates, Inc.
- 2001 - 2003 | Office Manager/Technician | Zook, Moore and Associates, Inc.
- 1999 - 2001 | Operations Manager | Norandex Reynolds

Education

- Pellissippi State Community College - Currently Attending - Accounting - Knoxville - Tennessee

Affiliations

- International Network of Collision Reconstructionists (INCR)
- National Association of Professional Accident Reconstruction Specialists (NAPARS)
- CDR Users Group